

Two Ringoes Wineries Win Awards

Published: Monday, June 13, 2011, 10:25 AM

By Hunterdon County Democrat

Dr. Gary Pavlis with Unionville assistant winemaker Zeke Johnsen

Two members of the Garden Stated Wine Growers Association from Ringoes have been awarded medals in the annual New Jersey Wine Competition.

The competition is conducted annually by the Rutgers University Cooperative Extension under the supervision of Rutgers University wine expert Dr. Gary Pavlis.

Unionville Vineyards in Ringoes captured a gold medal for “The White Montage” and a bronze for its Port Vat # 16. Old York Cellars in Ringoes won a silver medal for its 2009 Sweet Riesling and two bronze awards for its 2009 Chardonnay and 2009 Vidal Blanc.